LAGOS & SAGRES

LAGOS is a city open to the Atlantic ocean, which played a very important role during the Portuguese discoveries of the 15th/16th centuries. Visit the first slave market in Europe, the Statue of Henry, the Navigator and the Golden church of Saint Anthony, a masterpiece of Baroque style. Proceed on to CAPE ST. VICENT, the south-western most point in Europe, with its powerful lighthouse. This place was known in the past as "the end of the world". Pass by the 15th century fortress of SAGRES, called by the Romans the "Sacrum Promontorium".
Return to the hotels.
